Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Commissioner of Police, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore purchased a canvas tank at a cost of Rs.150/- for fire prevention work. The Commissioner is authorised to incur ordinary contingent expenditure on Fire Engine, vide para 15 on page 29 of the Bangalore Manual as inserted by correction slip No.XIII-5 dated the 20th April 1927, and replacements of worn out parts, without limit of amount, is given as an example of ordinary contingent expenditure. It seems doubtful, however, whether the intention of the rule is to cover such renewals as a canvas tank which would require replacement only after years of use and may therefore be looked upon as special items of expenditure requiring sanction of the Hon'ble the Resident under Civil Account Code Vol.I,Art.83, and I therefore request the favour of your instructions.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S Ramachandran

PAY AND ACCOUNTS OFFICER.
